MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Operations Division, OSA
Chief, Intelligence Division, OSA
Chief, Communications Division, OSA
Chief, Materiel Division, OSA
Chief, Weather Staff, OSA

SUBJECT: Briefing for Detachment Commanders

1. [redacted] Detachment G Commander, and [redacted] Detachment H Commander, will be in Headquarters for the week of 9 through 13 December 1963.
They will be briefed here in the Control Center starting at 0900 EST on 9 December and then they will participate in a seminar along with other members of their commands and Operations Division.

2. [redacted] only, will be given a briefing on D/FA activities as a whole, covering the total aspect of this part of the Office of Special Activities. The objective is to inform them of how this office functions with respect to IDEALIST in particular and at the same time to introduce necessary side issues (such as OXCART) so that they are fully aware of the total responsibility of D/FA. We want to "tell the story of D/FA".

3. Division and staff chiefs will prepare their presentations along the following general guidelines.
This outline is not intended to be restrictive, but rather is suggestive of the tenor of the presentation.
Branch and staff chiefs will rearrange the order and content of their briefings to suit their needs.

a. Deputy for Field Activities

(1) Introduction

(2) Organizational structure
